PROJECT

Likebook | HTML,Css, Javascript, PHP, Mysql - 2019

Likebok is a lightweight social platform, akin to Facebook. Built with PHP, HTML, MySQL, CSS, and JavaScript, it prioritizes simplicity, quick navigation, and user-friendly design. It offers essential features for posting updates and photos, with an emphasis on privacy controls. Likebok provides a streamlined, efficient alternative for connecting and sharing within a community.

Stopwatch | ReactJs - 2022

Stopwatch in React JS offers developers a versatile tool for time measurement. Leveraging React's component-based architecture, developers can create dynamic and responsive stopwatch features. The modular structure allows easy integration, customization, and state management. This facilitates precise time tracking, making it an essential asset for various applications requiring accurate time measurement.

WeatherApp | ReactJs, Hooks, API - 2023

Developed a React JS weather app utilizing a weather API for real-time updates. Seamlessly calls the API to fetch accurate weather data, enhancing user experience with dynamic and informative weather information.
